Peacebuilding

AfP Member Benefits

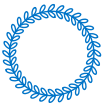

Because peace doesn't just happen. We build it. Join us!

While conflict exists everywhere, we do not have to accept that violent conflict is inevitable. The Alliance for Peacebuilding's (AfP) robust and committed community proves building peace is possible in faraway places and in neighborhoods just down the street. While the peacebuilding field has grown considerably since AfP launched over two decades ago, there is more work needed. AfP's new fieldbuilding strategy advances and strengthens the field to center and integrate peacebuilding in funding, laws, strategies, and programs, as well as in our social norms, relationships, and our narratives.

We are the Alliance for:

Accelerating collective action through collaboration and exchange.

Advocating for policies, laws, and funding to advance the peacebuilding field.

Developing an evidence base and standards of practice for better policies and practices and aligning the field on shared approaches.

Shaping new narratives to develop and amplify effective peacebuilding messaging.

About AfP:

Named the "number one influencer and change agent" among peacebuilding institutions worldwide—AfP is a nonprofit and nonpartisan network of 200+ organizations working in 181 countries to prevent conflict, reduce violence, and build sustainable peace. At our core, AfP cultivates a global network to strengthen and advance the peacebuilding field, enabling peacebuilding organizations to achieve greater impact—tackling issues too large for any one organization to address alone.

Organizational Member Benefits and Services:

As members of AfP, organizations, partners, and individuals join the leading global network of peacebuilding actors to tackle the most pressing global peace and security issues. Members gain unique opportunities to shape the peacebuilding field, build their network, enhance their organizational and leadership capacity, and amplify their programs, research, and events. These exclusive offerings allow members to engage with cross-sectoral experts, donors, and policymakers.

Shape the Peacebuilding Field:

- Increase your organizational influence through collective advocacy and education with AfP members on behalf of the peacebuilding field to help shape innovative and game changing laws and policies and to push for robust peacebuilding funding.
- Collaborate with peers and policymakers to advance the peacebuilding field through AfP's convenings including the Global Fragility Act Coalition, and working groups on Conflict Sensitivity and Integration, Preventing and Countering Violent Extremism \(P/CVE\), Locally-Led Peacebuilding, Digital Peacebuilding, and U.S. Peace, Justice, and Democracy.
- Help set AfP's strategic direction and policy-to-action priorities to address peacebuilding's most critical issues, including organizational efforts to advance diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI).

Build Partnerships and Strengthen Your Network:

- Expand your reach and impact by leveraging AfP's extensive network and platforms and by partnering with AfP on conferences, events, and campaigns.
- Join AfP's regularly held advocacy meetings and private consultations with policymakers, bilateral and multilateral donors, and other key stakeholders.
- Engage with leaders in the field by attending and/or presenting at the premier annual peacebuilding event, PeaceCon. AfP members receive early access and enjoy discounted registration. In 2022, PeaceCon@10 featured more than 1,600 participants from 120 countries, representing a dynamic cross-section of civil society, donors, policymakers, lawmakers, philanthropy, the private sector, and academia. PeaceCon's hashtag #RiseToBuildPeace reached over 20 million people.

Enhance Your Organizational and Leadership Capacity

- Receive unlimited memberships for your organization's staff, gaining access to exclusive peacebuilding information and resources through our members-only newsletter, policy alerts, funding opportunities, working groups, AfP's widely viewed Jobs Board, AfP's Eirene Peacebuilding Database®, and off-the-record member consultations with policymakers and donors.
- Participate in the rollout of AfP's new fieldbuilding strategy through exclusive member consultations, tailored skill-building and coaching sessions in policy development, advocacy, storytelling, and communications; mentorship opportunities; and organizational and leadership development training.
- Increase your visibility, positioning, and organizational profile by taking advantage of AfP-hosted sessions on DM&E, proposal development, and private sector engagement.

Amplify Your Impact

- Promote your organization's events, news, job announcements, and publications through AfP's influential platforms, including our website, original podcast, and Creativity in Crisis video series, 15,000+ listserv, and social media accounts reaching 65,000+ followers.
- Utilize AfP's communications support offerings, including connections to media outlets, features on our Medium account, access to our media lists, and capacity-building trainings.
- Co-organize events with AfP and take advantage of our conference space in downtown Washington, DC for 40+ people. Our offices are one block from the Dupont Circle Metro and conveniently located near government buildings and many large international organizations' headquarters.
